

Have you heard the BUZZ?

Beekeeping Demonstration & Honey Tasting At Your Location

Did you know that only female bees can sting?

Learn more fascinating facts about bees and pollination during this 1-hour program that can be held indoors or outdoors at your location, any time of year.

Please note that live bees are not included in this program.

Beekeeper Mark Ceneri will lead this demonstration as he wears his bee suit and shows how beekeeping equipment, including hives, frames, smoker, and hive tool are used.

Program will include:

- A tasting of Connecticut raw honey
- Lively discussion on the importance of pollination to food production
- Captivating facts about the cooperative structure of honeybee society, including bees' many roles in the hive
- All you need to know about honey, royal jelly, and beeswax

Cost: $300 for a group of up to 30 participants
